TMTA ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

PROGRAM - Saturday 28th February

9.45am Registration and morning tea.

10.15am RUTH BONETTI presents “How to Motivate, Retain and Inspire Students.”

Why are some students “all talk and no do?” Others decimated by adverse comments? Learn useful insights to assess personalities and optimise results. Maintain students’ enthusiasm through torrid adolescence and final year stresses. Teach to the different “temperaments” of students; take the next step beyond teaching just to learning styles.

11.45am Annual General Meeting (members only)

12.15pm Lunch.

12.45 FRANCES UNDERWOOD presents the 2015 Jan Sedivka Memorial Lecture

“A Question of Musical Genius.”

2.00pm RUTH BONETTI presents “Empower Students to Shine in Performance.”

Deal with nerves – to make performing a pleasure! Help turn students’ adrenaline jitters, shakes and dry-mouth into energy, poise and focus for public performance, public speaking and examinations.

3.15pm Afternoon tea.

3.45pm RUTH BONETTI presents “Techniques to Rejuvenate and Overcome Workplace Challenges.”

The teaching profession involves constant giving out – of energy, time, voice and support. It can feel like a one-way street. A long term can seem endless as energy and enthusiasm wane. Presenter Ruth Bonetti shares tips to replenish that she learned on her own journey as a teacher. Learn and apply into busy schedules easy one-minute and five-minute exercises to empower BREATH-BODY-MIND. This session empowers and validates teachers’ excellent work. Please wear comfortable clothes suitable for stretching and moving.
